

3rd Annual Sexual Health and Young People Symposium: The Next Steps in the Teenage Pregnancy Strategy

Tuesday 15th June 2010

The Guoman Charing Cross Hotel, The Strand, London

- 09:15 Registration and Morning Refreshments
- 10:00 Chair's Welcome and Introduction
- 10:15 The Teenage Pregnancy Strategy: The Next Steps
- Beyond the 2010 Target – Progress Made, Challenges to Face, Strengthening Local Strategies
 - Up-Skilling the Workforce – Improving Leadership and Training, Extending Multi-Agency Working and Joint Commissioning
- 11:00 Morning Coffee Break
- 11:15 Panel Session One:
Improving Sexual Health – Empowering Young People to Make Informed Choices
- Shaping and Delivering Effective SRE – Responding to the Needs of Young People and Supporting Parents
 - Providing Young People with the Skills and Confidence to Make Good Decisions and Challenge Peer Pressure
 - Empowering Young People to Recognise and Understand the Influence of Media, Advertising and Pornography
 - Alcohol, Substance Misuse and Risky Behaviour
- 12:00 Open Floor Discussion and Debate with Panel One
- 13:00 Networking Lunch
- 14:00 Panel Session Two:
Reducing Teenage Pregnancy and STI Rates – Targeting Vulnerable and Hard to Reach Groups
- Utilising the CAF Across All Sectors to Better Identify & Support Young People at Risk
 - Targeting Boys – Addressing Stigma and Gender Stereotypes
 - Improving Access to and Effective Use of Contraception – Providing Consistent, Tailored and Innovative CASH Services
 - Preventing Repeat Conceptions
- 14:45 Afternoon Coffee Break
- 15:00 Open Floor Discussion and Debate with Panel Two
- 15:50 Chair's Summary and Closing Comments
- 16:00 Networking Reception
- 16:45 Symposium Close

* Please note that the programme is subject to change without notice ****