

practice, advocating for the rights of children and youth, creating inclusive learning environments, facilitating community practice and empowerment. The successful candidate will have demonstrated teaching skills in one or more of the following areas: individualized instructional strategies and curriculum development, assistive and adaptive technologies, disability/exceptionalities, child growth and development, practicum supervision, program management, and leadership development.

In addition to an interdisciplinary teaching workload within the Department, the successful candidate will be expected to engage in scholarly activity related to the Department and/or Faculty, demonstrate a passion for teaching undergraduate students and have a willingness to engage in service to the Department, Faculty, and University.

Preferred candidates will hold a Ph.D. or Ed.D. in Education or a related field with a focus on special education, disability or community rehabilitation. The ideal candidate will have current knowledge of learning theory, Alberta K-12 curriculum, school-based practice and educational leadership. The candidate will demonstrate a commitment to undergraduate teaching and an ongoing interdisciplinary research program. Applicants should have a minimum of 3 years of experience working directly with children and youth in school-based settings or a combination of school-based practice and other related experiences.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, teaching dossier (including recent teaching evaluations), statement of research interests, sample of scholarly work, and academic transcripts. Three letters of reference, quoting the competition number and candidate name, should be sent directly from referees to careers@macewan.ca.

Questions about this opportunity may be addressed to Dr. Tricia Lirette, Chair, Department of Early Learning and Human Services at lirettet@macewan.ca

How to Apply:

Only applications received electronically will be considered. To apply, go to <http://www.macewan.ca/careers> and select the job posting.

Thank you for your interest in employment with MacEwan University. We will be reviewing all applications to select the candidates whose qualifications and experience most closely meet our needs. Only applicants selected for interviews will be contacted.

For general inquiries, please contact us at careers@macewan.ca.

This position is included under the Faculty Association collective agreement.

MacEwan University is committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion. We encourage Indigenous people, persons living with a disability, sexual and gender minorities, women, and members of all minority groups to apply and to self-identify. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Category	Full-Time Tenure-Track
Salary	Commensurate with qualifications and experience
Closing Date	A review of applications will begin January 21, 2019 and continue until a suitable candidate is found
Competition No.	18.11.252
Apply Online	Apply Now